

Please do not weaken Indiana's telephone privacy act with a new Federal law. Our current law works. I used to get a lot of annoying calls (especially at dinner). Now it is very rare and when it does occur, all I have to do is mention I'm on the no call list and usually I get an immediate apology.

Our law works - please don't "fix" it.

Thanks for your attention,

Wayne Bugg